

Shree C.N.P.F. Arts & D.N. Science College, Dabhoi.

Sem III General English (B.A. / B.Sc.)

Prof.P.P.Desai

M.C.Q.

Q.1 (A) Answer in one sentence

1. What did the teacher of physical education ask the boys to do?
2. Who was Cicero?
3. How did the letter writer's sister's son great troubles for him at home?
4. What does a gentleman in Florence do to go to upstairs in his house?
5. Who has translated the "Letter to a teacher"? from which language?
6. Which are the two simplest words an English according to G.B. Shaw?
7. What is an insult to a native speaker of English?
8. What is Sir Johnston Forbes Robertson famous for?
9. What unladylike or ungentleman like thing does Shaw want us to do?
10. What did the cyclist announce to the members of the bungalow?
11. Why did the beggar woman ask the mother not to kill the snake?
12. What had Dasa been demanding for the proper care of the garden?
13. What kind of man was the photographer?
14. With whom does Leacock compare the photographer?
15. What does the machine in the story 'With The Photographer' refer to?

(B) Say whether the following sentences are true or false.

1. The snake charmer could not catch the snake
2. Leacock was very much pleased by his retouched photograph?
3. Dasa was finally rewarded by the family as he had caught two snakes in the sealed pot.
4. The teacher of the letter writer student is very kind and helpful to her students.
5. The students who know Cicero are very intimate with their neighbours

6. There is not much difference between company manners and home manners
7. According to G B Shaw there is no such thing as ideally correct English
8. According to G B Shaw no knowledge of grammar of English is needed when a foreigner speaks to a native English man
9. To Leacock the photograph taken by the photographer was a worthless bauble.
10. The teacher of physical education had appreciated his students' physical ability and skill to cut an oak tree and drag home its branch through snow covered ground.

(C) Fill in the blanks with appropriate alternative given in the bracket against each.

1. G B Shaw is _____. (an Irishman, an American, a Frenchman)
2. A gentleman in _____ rides upstairs in his house in a lift (Florence, Tokyo, Newyork)
3. The teacher of physical education ask his students to play _____ (Basketball, football, volleyball)
4. For the mother arrival of snake was a reminder of her forgotten promised _____ (Abhishekam, pilgrimage, aarti)
5. _____ informed the members of the bungalow of a snakes arrival (A snake charrmer, a beggar, a cyclist)
6. G B Shaw was selected in the committee formed by BBC because he was a _____ (Playwright, a poet laureate, radio announcer)
7. According to G B Shaw the difference between company members and home manners is greater in _____ than in anything else. (Speech, writing, behaviour)
8. The college boy of the family said that as many as 30,000 people died of _____ every year. (Snake bite, cancer, heart attack)
9. Leacock had his photograph taken because he wanted his _____ to keep it as a memory after his death. (Friends, family members, neighbours)
10. The Essay "Broken English and Spoken English" is a _____ made for the Linguaphone Institute.

Q.2 Fill in the blanks with the most appropriate alternative given in the bracket against each.

1. An interrogative sentence can be identified by _____ at the end of a sentence (?, !, :)
2. An _____ sentence can be identified by '!' at the end of a sentence (Exclamatory, assertive, interrogative)
3. While transforming a negative sentence into affirmative or vice versa we should take care that the _____ of sentence should not change. (Meaning, structure, intonation)
4. In a sentence of comparative degree " _____ " is added to an adjective (est, ing, er)
5. When two things or persons possess some quality in equal degree, we express it in a sentence of _____ degree (Positive, superlative, comparative)
6. We find " _____ " added to the adjective form to a word in a sentence of superlative degree (er, est, ing)
7. I am fond of playing cricket. The underlined word _____ is (gerund, present participle, past participle)
8. Gerund or present participle have " _____ " added to verb (ing, est, ed)
9. He was not sure about his success in the exam- is _____ sentence (An interrogative, a negative, an imperative)
10. The word "walking stick" is _____. (an adjective, a compound word, a verb phrase)
11. Nobody was present in the class- this sentence can be changed into affirmative by replacing "nobody" by "everybody" and "present" by the word _____ (absent, absentees, absence)

12. _____ is believing (To see, seeing , seen)
13. The feeling of joy, surprise, sorrow, wonder, gratitude, can be expressed by _____ sentence (Exclamatory, interrogative, assertive)
14. Bhim was _____ of all Pandvas
(Stronger, the strongest, strong)
15. Honour is _____ to him than money
(more valuable, most valuable, so valuable)